SPRING 2025

Commencement

CONVOCATIONS

Friday, May 16, 2025, Haas Center for the Arts

Saturday, May 17, 2025, Redman Stadium

GENERAL INFORMATION

Please be informed that all candidates for degrees and all honors designated for degrees earned are determined according to the academic record that includes the student's last semester which becomes official once all grades have been submitted and posted. A student's receipt of degree and the declaration of related honors must be confirmed and validated by the final transcript.

In all cases, the actual awarding of a degree by the university is subject to verification by the registrar. Time limitations associated with commencement make such verification before this ceremony impossible. Therefore these exercises are to be considered as ceremonial only.

The views or opinions expressed by the guest speakers at today's commencement are their own and do not necessarily represent the views or opinions of Commonwealth University.

HONORARY DOCTORATE RECIPIENT

The Honorable Mary Jane Bowes

Since 2001, the Honorable Mary Jane Bowes has served as a judge on the Superior Court of Pennsylvania. During that time, Judge Bowes has been a fierce advocate for increased transparency in the operation of the court.

An elected member of the American Law Institute, she was appointed by the Supreme Court to the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, the Appellate Courts Procedural Rules Committee, and the Pennsylvania Commission on Judicial Independence, which she chairs.

Judge Bowes lectures widely throughout the Commonwealth on appellate practice. She has served on the boards of numerous charitable, civic, and educational organizations, including the Bloomsburg University Council of Trustees, where she is a former trustee, past chair, and an Honorary Alumna.

Judge Bowes earned her bachelor's degree from Georgetown University, and her Juris Doctorate from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, where she is the immediate past chair of the Alumni Association. Upon graduation, she clerked for the Supreme and Superior Courts of Pennsylvania. Judge Bowes thereafter engaged in the general practice of law before joining the legal department of a publicly-traded corporation.

She was named one of Pennsylvania's Best 50 Women in Business by Gov. Tom Ridge. Judge Bowes recently was honored with the Judge Robert E. Dauer Award for Judicial Excellence and Leadership by the Amen Corner in Pittsburgh. She is the proud grandma to Molly Jane, Teddy, and Ella.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Marc Steckel

Principal Consultant, Receiver IQ, LLC

Marc Steckel recently retired from the Federal Housing Finance Agency where he led the effort to end the conservatorships of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. He's currently working to establish Receiver IQ, a consultancy offering expertise on government-administered receiverships and conservatorships.

Steckel began his career with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation where he worked for 28 years. Before establishing and leading a group responsible for resolution strategies for important financial institutions, Steckel held a series of staff and leadership positions covering bank examinations, capital markets oversight, failed bank resolutions, and deposit insurance funds.

Steckel is a former member of the Bloomsburg University Alumni Association Board of Directors and is currently a member of the Bloomsburg University Foundation board. While a student at Bloomsburg, Marc was a member of TKE and the University Scholars Program.

He holds a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from Bloomsburg University. He is a CFA charter holder, a graduate of the Stonier Graduate School of Banking, and holds an Executive Certificate in Public Leadership from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

Marc and his wife Diane live in New Windsor, Maryland.

RECESSIONAL

Allison Margaret Pettit

Allison Margaret Pettit, born and raised in Tampa, Florida, is an accomplished entrepreneur, community advocate, and philanthropist with a lifelong passion for service.

She began her academic journey at Florida Southern College and continued at Saint Leo University while working full-time. Just 12 credits shy of graduating, her path was interrupted after surviving two life-threatening brain hemorrhages in 2014—a turning point that only deepened her resilience and purpose.

Allison went on to become an owner in multiple successful ventures and is known for her unwavering commitment to lifting others up. A dedicated student advocate, she has mentored and hosted interns, always striving to ensure no one is left behind or marginalized. Her love for the arts and her background as an accomplished tennis player further reflect her dynamic, well-rounded spirit.

She is the daughter of Howard and Catherine Moore and sister to Nicholas Moore. Allison is also the proud wife of Steph Pettit, with whom she shares a deep commitment to philanthropy. From her very first visit to Bloomsburg University with Steph, she felt an instant connection to its mission and community—a bond that continues to inspire her dedication to giving back and helping others thrive.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Lynda Schlegel Culver Pennsylvania State Senator

State Senator Lynda Schlegel Culver was elected to serve the residents of the 27th District in a special election in January 2023 and reelected to a full term in November 2024. Lynda was previously elected to serve seven terms representing the people in the 108th District in the state House of Representatives.

Sen. Culver is the chair of the Senate Education Committee and the vice chair of the Health and Human Services Committee. She serves on the Appropriations, Aging & Youth, Consumer Protection & Professional Licensure, Intergovernmental Operations, and Local Government committees.

Culver also serves as a member of Central Susquehanna Opportunities, Inc. Board of Directors and the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency Board of Directors.

She is a Shikellamy High School graduate and earned a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a concentration in Public Administration from Bloomsburg University. She is also a graduate of the Leadership Susquehanna Valley Program.

She lives in Rockefeller Township with her husband, Tom, and their dog, Rooney. They have an adult son, Joshua. The family is active in their church in Sunbury.

HONORARY DOCTORATES

Beginning in 1983, the Council of Trustees of Bloomsburg University granted approval to award honorary degrees by the university. The policy provides that recipients of honorary degrees will be people who have made noteworthy contributions to Bloomsburg University, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to society, or to a particular academic discipline and have demonstrated meritorious achievement or scholarship in the arts and humanities, the social sciences, science and technology, education, the health professions, commerce and trade, or industry.

It further provided that such degrees will be awarded only to those women and men whose lives and works exemplify excellence, service, and integrity. It also is expected that the honorary degree recipient, through deeds and performance, will be an exemplary model for graduates of this and other institutions of higher learning.

Bloomsburg has awarded honorary degrees to:

Howard F. Fenstemaker, Doctor of Pedagogy
John Heinz, Doctor of Laws

UNIVERSITY MEDALLION

The university medallion is worn by the president of the university during academic convocations as a symbol of the leadership responsibilities vested in that office.

The Commonwealth University medallion is depicted on the cover of the program. The chain the medallion is suspended from incorporates the names each campus was identified by and the dates those names were used.

At Bloomsburg, replicas of the Bloomsburg University medallion have been given to individuals who have performed exemplary service to the university:

UNIVERSITY MACE

Bloomsburg's mace made its first appearance at a commencement ceremony in August of 1963. The history of the ceremonial academic mace can be traced back to the fourteenth century when it developed as a composite of two ancient objects, the royal scepter and the battle mace.

European universities combined these two symbols into an academic mace or ceremonial staff that demonstrated the authority and right of academic institutions to grant degrees to candidates who had earned that privilege. Colleges and universities in the United States gradually adopted this tradition, and in early 1963, the Dean of Students at Bloomsburg State College, J. Alfred McCauslin, proposed the school adopt one as well.

Academic maces are usually carried by a marshal who precedes the institution's president in the ceremonial procession.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Bloomsburg Alumni Association congratulates today's graduates, the newest members of the association.

The Alumni Association was formed in 1871 by members of the classes of 1870 and 1871. These graduates wanted to remain connected to their alma mater and preserve and celebrate relationships with classmates, faculty, and staff. Thanks to their vision, 150 years later the association provides programs and services to nearly 76,000 alumni. Through events and programs, the alumni association fosters relationships that engage alumni in the university's strategic priorities and philanthropic goals.

While your time as a student at Bloomsburg University has concluded, never forget your alma mater and plan to come back to BU, virtually and in person, often. As the newest members of the BU Alumni Association, we invite you to become actively engaged alumni and consider supporting future generations of Huskies.

Visit www.commonwealthu.edu/alumni and subscribe to receive communications from the association, through monthly alumni e-newsletters, invitations to alumni events and exclusive networking opportunities, and access to career and professional development resources through Bloomsburg's online career management system, Handshake. The alumni webpage also provides information about regional alumni networks and volunteer opportunities to stay engaged with Bloomsburg.

The alumni association, led by 15 volunteer members of the board of directors representing a wide range of class years, geographic locations, and interests, is here for you. Please reach out any time to share your ideas, provide input, or ask for support.

You can visit the Alumni Association on the third floor of the Greenly Center, 50 East Main St., in downtown Bloomsburg or contact us at 1-800-526-0254 or bloomsburgalumni@commonwealthu.edu. GO HUSKIES!

CAMPUS EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

CU-Bloomsburg is excited to welcome you to campus, your safety is a priority, please read the below emergency plan to assist prepare you for an enjoyable ceremony. CU-Bloomsburg University strives to provide a safe and enjoyable environment for all attendees during commencement activities. To this end, the University collaborates with the Town of Bloomsburg, Columbia County Emergency Management, state agencies and the private sector to support the event. Many of these resources work behind the scene, both inside and outside the venue.

Report a Public Safety Issue

To report a public safety issue, call CU Bloomsburg Police at 570-389-2211 or 911 if it is an emergency. The public may also report a concern in person to any law enforcement officer. Make sure to provide the section, row, and seat number.

Public Address Announcements

Should an emergency occur, instructions will be provided through public address system. Public safety personnel dispersed throughout the auditorium may also provide instructions to guests. It is important for people to remain calm and follow the instructions.

Medical

If medical attention is needed, please call 911 or 570-389-2211 to request assistance. If telephone service is unavailable, ask or direct someone to contact the nearest usher or police officer. Police & security personnel are deployed throughout the auditorium. If public safety personnel cannot be immediately located but other University support personnel are available, ask them to request assistance. Medical personnel are stationed at the venue.

Remember to provide the location (section, row, and seat number) and nature of the emergency.

Persons with mobility impairments who need assistance evacuating will be assisted by event staff and emergency responders.

Lost Child

Parents or a designated responsible adult should advise children to seek a law enforcement officer if they are lost or become separated. Parents or a designated responsible adult may call BUPD at 570-389-2211 or report their lost child to the nearest police officer or security personnel. It is important to provide a description (clothing, age, last known location, etc. Parents should carry a photograph or have an electronic picture of their children. Parents may also want to (1) photograph their children with a cell phone before commencement, (2) leave their contact information in their children's pocket, and (3) have a designated meeting location should they become separated.

Power Failure

If the power fails, instructions will be provided through the public address system. Please remain calm and in your seat until instructions are provided. Consider bringing a small penlight to assist you while the power is out.

Evacuation

Under special circumstances for safety purposes, guests may be required to evacuate the venue. Should this occur, please follow the directions provided through the public address system and leave in a calm, orderly fashion through the nearest exit. (This may not be the entrance you entered.) Please continue to move away from Haas Auditorium so that those behind you have room to exit and are not hindered.

Keep in mind that it will take some time to evacuate. Please do not push the crowd but try to keep moving. This will permit a quicker and more efficient evacuation. Guests who need more time may want to leave the auditorium before a foreseeable event (such as weather) arrives.

Please watch out for and help people with special needs. If an evacuation were ordered, in most cases it is recommended that guests return to their vehicles and leave the area. In some situations, such as severe weather, it may be advisable to leave the auditorium and seek nearby shelter.

Weather

Should a weather event develop, information and warnings will be provided through the public address system.

Explosion

Call 911 or notify the nearest police officer if an explosion occurs. Guests should move away from the area, exit the auditorium, and return to their vehicles.

Fire

To report a fire, the public should call 911 or notify the nearest police officer or security personnel. Alert others and move away from the area. Please help persons with special needs.

Suspicious Behavior/Package

As a preventive measure, guests are asked to call 570-389-2211 or notify the nearest police officer or security personnel of a suspicious package or person. Police personnel will pursue an appropriate response based on the circumstance.
