GENERAL INFORMATION

Please be informed that all candidates for degrees and all honors designated for degrees earned are determined according to the academic record that includes the student's last semester which becomes official once all grades have been submitted and posted. A student's receipt of degree and the declaration of related honors must be confirmed and validated by the final transcript.

In all cases, the actual awarding of a degree by the university is subject to verification by the registrar. Time limitations associated with commencement make such verification before this ceremony impossible. Therefore these exercises are to be considered as ceremonial only.

The views or opinions expressed by the guest speakers at today's commencement are their own and do not necessarily represent the views or opinions of Commonwealth University.

UNDERGRADUATE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

The Honorable David B. Gass

Judge, Arizona Court of Appeals

Judge David B. Gass grew up in central Pennsylvania, but spent a year studying in Chihuahua, Mexico. During his career, he has served in all three branches of Arizona's government.

In 2009, he was appointed to the Maricopa County Superior Court.

He, along with another judge, established a specialty court to work with juvenile victims of sex trafficking. In 2019, he was appointed to the Arizona Court of Appeals, where he served as both Vice Chief Judge and Chief Judge.

Judge Gass has received numerous recognitions, including the State Bar of Arizona Public Lawyers Award for Judicial Excellence, the Arizona Judges Association Above and Beyond award, the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law Judicial Officer of the Year award, the Arizona Bar Foundation Diversity and Inclusion Leadership Award and the Mark Santana Law-Related Education Award.

His recognitions also include the Arizona Supreme Court's Committee on Judicial Education and Training award for Excellence in Education, the Maricopa County Chapter of the Arizona Women Lawyers Association Ruth V. McGregor Award, the Arizona Legal Women and Youth Services (ALWAYS) Heart of Justice Award, and the Arizona Black Bar Diversity Award.

Judge Gass felt strongly that Arizona should recognize the Fred Korematsu Day of Civil Liberties and the Constitution so we never forget the wrongs done to persons of Japanese descent and their families. After five years of work, he made it a reality so we always remember our Constitution and our civil liberties are fragile and require constant attention.

And he saves stray dogs on the side.

HONORARY DOCTORATE RECIPIENT

Robert J. Thorn

Robert J. Thorn is a distinguished leader in higher education whose career in higher education spans more than 43 years, including more than three decades with the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE).

Over the course of his tenure, he served in a variety of impactful leadership roles, at Alderson-Broaddus University, Ohio University, and California University of Pennsylvania. Those roles included vice president of administration and finance, and most notably interim president at California University of Pennsylvania.

He later was senior vice president and chief operating Officer, where he provided strategic leadership prior to the official integration of California, Clarion, and Edinboro universities into Pennsylvania Western University.

Thorn retired in July 2022 following his exemplary career. Because of his extensive experience and respected reputation across the Commonwealth, he was asked by PASSHE to lend his expertise again by providing financial consulting assistance to Commonwealth University of Pennsylvania during a period of significant financial and operational challenges. Thorn accepted the request and joined Commonwealth University as a loaned executive consultant, and in September 2024 his role was expanded when he agreed to serve as the Interim Chief Financial Officer until a permanent CFO was selected.

Thorn ultimately interrupted his retirement for two full years in service to Commonwealth University. His accomplishments include reducing the university's annual deficit since his arrival, providing a roadmap to further stability over the next few fiscal years, strengthening budget controls and implementing a position review process that assists leadership in maintaining appropriate workforce level while prioritizing mission-critical, student-facing roles. He was a regular presence at university shared governance meetings as well as University Town Halls.

He has been an invaluable advisor to President Osgood and the entire leadership team, turning what began as a short-term commitment into a critical, stable leadership presence during transition at the presidential level.

With Thorn's guidance, Commonwealth University successfully recruited a permanent Chief Financial Officer/Vice President for Finance who started on February 1, 2026. He remained engaged with Commonwealth University on a part-time basis through the spring semester in assisting the new CFO in transitioning into her role.

Thorn earned an Associate's of Applied Business degree from Kent State University in 1979, and two years later a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Alderson-Broaddus University in West Virginia. In 1990, Thorn earned a master's in education degree from Ohio University, specializing in higher education administration.

Thorn resides in Brownsville with his wife Jackie. They have three children, Ryan, Benjamin and Jillian and four grandchildren, Brinley, Ryley Bransyn, and Reese.

HONORARY DOCTORATES

Beginning in 1983, the Council of Trustees of Bloomsburg University granted approval to award honorary degrees by the university. The policy provides that recipients of honorary degrees will be people who have made noteworthy contributions to Bloomsburg University, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to society, or to a particular academic discipline and have demonstrated meritorious achievement or scholarship in the arts and humanities, the social sciences, science and technology, education, the health professions, commerce and trade, or industry.

It further provided that such degrees will be awarded only to those women and men whose lives and works exemplify excellence, service, and integrity. It also is expected that the honorary degree recipient, through deeds and performance, will be an exemplary model for graduates of this and other institutions of higher learning.

Bloomsburg has awarded honorary degrees to:

Howard F. Fenstemaker, Doctor of Pedagogy
John Heinz, Doctor of Laws
Frank C. Laubach, Doctor of Humane Letters
Grace M. Hopper, Doctor of Science
Roger Tory Peterson, Doctor of Letters
Edwin M. Barton, Doctor of Letters

The Honorable Mary Jane Bowes, Doctor of Law

UNIVERSITY MEDALLION

The university medallion is worn by the president of the university during academic convocations as a symbol of the leadership responsibilities vested in that office.

The Commonwealth University medallion is depicted on the cover of the program. The chain the medallion is suspended from incorporates the names each campus was identified by and the dates those names were used.

At Bloomsburg, replicas of the Bloomsburg University medallion have been given to individuals who have performed exemplary service to the university:

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The traditional academic regalia worn at commencement exercises is a record of the academic achievement of that individual.

Its use originated at English and European universities during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries.

The long gown evolved from the monk's habit. The hood evolved from the cowl that the monks wore over their heads. Today's mortarboard can be traced to the skull caps worn by the churchmen.

The colorful hoods designate the degree of the wearer, the subject in which the degree is held, and the institution that awarded the degree. The color of the velvet band on each hood and robe represent a scholar's field of learning, while the official colors of the school awarding the degree always are shown in the lining of the hood and, sometimes, by the distinctive color of the gown. Bloomsburg University colors are maroon and gold.

As institutions of higher learning were established in America, beginning with Harvard College in 1636, the universities followed the English precedent in which each developed its own version of academic dress. As has been the case with the British universities, there was virtually no conformity from one institution to another and sometimes not even within institutions. College and university administrators, sensing a need for uniformity, convened in 1895 to develop a uniform code of academic regalia. Still in use by most American institutions, the code has been reviewed and revised only twice.

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering.....	Orange
Fine Arts, including Architecture	Brown
Forestry	Russet
Journalism.....	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot

Physical Education.....	Sage Green
Public Administration, including Foreign Service	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet
Veterinary Science.....	Gray

UNIVERSITY MACE

Bloomsburg's mace made its first appearance at a commencement ceremony in August of 1963. The history of the ceremonial academic mace can be traced back to the fourteenth century when it developed as a composite of two ancient objects, the royal scepter and the battle mace.

Kings used the scepter as a symbol of their power and authority, while warriors wielded the mace as a weapon to prove their strength and superiority on the battlefield.

European universities combined these two symbols into an academic mace or ceremonial staff that demonstrated the authority and right of academic institutions to grant degrees to candidates who had earned that privilege. Colleges and universities in the United States gradually adopted this tradition, and in early 1963, the Dean of Students at Bloomsburg State College, J. Alfred McCauslin, proposed the school adopt one as well. A design for the mace was submitted to Ensko & Co. of New York that March. Maces were traditionally topped with an ornament representing the institution's history, and in Bloomsburg's case the symbol chosen was the keystone, the symbol of Pennsylvania.

Academic maces are usually carried by a marshal who precedes the institution's president in the ceremonial procession.

THE UNIVERSITY

Handwritten words on six sheets of lined paper established the Bloomsburg Literary Institute in 1856. Recorded in a Columbia County deed book, the Act to Incorporate the Bloomsburg Literary Institute established “a company for the provision of education, both in the ordinary and higher branches of English, literature and science, and in the ancient and modern languages.”

The newly formed institute grew from an academy that operated with varied success in Bloomsburg since 1839.

The rules of the corporation outlined how the institution’s first trustees would be selected and their terms of service and how new trustees would be elected. It listed the trustees’ specific duties, which included the issuance of stock at $20 per share, the purchase or sale of real estate, and the employment or discharge of teachers. The trustees also would be called upon to adjudicate conflicts between teachers and parents or guardians “and in general exercise such oversight as may tend to the greatest efficiency and usefulness of the school.”

One of the most visible symbols of the university’s past is Carver Hall. The building, named in memory of Henry Carver, principal at the time, was erected in 1867. Today, it is considered the university’s landmark.

Largely through the efforts of J.P. Wickersham, superintendent of public instruction, Bloomsburg Literary Institute became Bloomsburg Literary Institute and State Normal School in 1869. The school continued under this name and structure until 1916 when it was purchased by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and named Bloomsburg State Normal School.

The emphasis at the Normal School changed during the early 1920s from secondary and college preparatory courses for special teachers to full-time teacher education. This new thrust in the curriculum led to the adoption, in May 1927, of the designation Bloomsburg State Teachers College. The institution was authorized to grant a bachelor of science in education, a degree which prepared students for teaching careers in elementary and secondary schools.

Under the administration of Francis B. Haas (1927-1939), great progress was made in the teacher education program, including the addition of a new degree program in business education. Haas left Bloomsburg to accept an appointment as superintendent of public instruction for Pennsylvania, the same post he held from 1925 to 1927 prior to coming to Bloomsburg. Harvey A. Andruss, then dean of instruction and former director of the business education department, served as acting president from 1939 until January 1941, when the school’s trustees unanimously elected him president, a position he held until his retirement in 1969.

During World War II, the United States Navy V-12 Officer Training Program was conducted on the campus, a service now commemorated by the naming of Navy Hall. In 1957, the Division of Special Education was instituted. Major expansions in facilities, faculty, and student body followed. Enrollment rose from 1,743 in 1960 to 8,924 in fall 2018.

In 1960, the school’s name was changed to Bloomsburg State College. Authorization was received shortly thereafter to grant a bachelor of arts for liberal arts programs in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences and mathematics. Graduate study leading to a master of education also was inaugurated. In 1968, approval was received for a master of arts; in 1970, for a master of science; in 1976, for a master of business administration; and in 1982, for a master of science in nursing. In 2003 a doctoral program in clinical audiology was approved; and in 2014, a doctor of nursing practice program was added.

The name Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania, was officially adopted when commonwealth legislation established the fourteen-member State System of Higher Education on July 1, 1983. James H. McCormick, Bloomsburg’s president at the time, became the system’s interim chancellor and later its first permanent chancellor.

In July 2017, Bashar W. Hanna was named the university’s nineteenth president.

On July 1, 2022, Bloomsburg University integrated with Lock Haven and Mansfield universities to become Commonwealth University.

In April 2016, Dr. Jeffery Osgood was named president of Commonwealth University

Today, Commonwealth University is a comprehensive institution offering curricula in the liberal arts, business, science and technology, nursing, allied health sciences, and teacher education. Degree programs are offered at the associate’s, bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral levels.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Bloomsburg Alumni Association congratulates today's graduates, the newest members of the association.

The Alumni Association was formed in 1871 by members of the classes of 1870 and 1871. These graduates wanted to remain connected to their alma mater and preserve and celebrate relationships with classmates, faculty, and staff. Thanks to their vision, 150 years later the association provides programs and services to nearly 76,000 alumni. Through events and programs, the alumni association fosters relationships that engage alumni in the university's strategic priorities and philanthropic goals.

While your time as a student at Bloomsburg University has concluded, never forget your alma mater and plan to come back to BU, virtually and in person, often. As the newest members of the BU Alumni Association, we invite you to become actively engaged alumni and consider supporting future generations of Huskies.

Visit www.commonwealthu.edu/alumni and subscribe to receive communications from the association, through monthly alumni e-newsletters, invitations to alumni events and exclusive networking opportunities, and access to career and professional development resources through Bloomsburg's online career management system, Handshake. The alumni webpage also provides information about regional alumni networks and volunteer opportunities to stay engaged with Bloomsburg.

The alumni association, led by 15 volunteer members of the board of directors representing a wide range of class years, geographic locations, and interests, is here for you. Please reach out any time to share your ideas, provide input, or ask for support.

You can visit the Alumni Association on the third floor of the Greenly Center, 50 East Main St., in downtown Bloomsburg or contact us at 1-800-526-0254 or bloomsburgalumni@commonwealthu.edu. GO HUSKIES!

CAMPUS EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

CU-Bloomsburg is excited to welcome you to campus, your safety is a priority, please read the below emergency plan to assist prepare you for an enjoyable ceremony. CU-Bloomsburg strives to provide a safe and enjoyable environment for all attendees during commencement activities. To this end, the University collaborates with the Town of Bloomsburg, Columbia County Emergency Management, state agencies and the private sector to support the event. Many of these resources work behind the scene, both inside and outside the venue.

Report a Public Safety Issue

To report a public safety issue, call CU Bloomsburg Police at 570-389-2211 or 911 if it is an emergency. The public may also report a concern in person to any law enforcement officer. Make sure to provide the section, row, and seat number.

Public Address Announcements

Should an emergency occur, instructions will be provided through public address system. Public safety personnel dispersed throughout the auditorium may also provide instructions to guests. It is important for people to remain calm and follow the instructions.

Medical

If medical attention is needed, please call 911 or 570-389-2211 to request assistance. If telephone service is unavailable, ask or direct someone to contact the nearest usher or police officer. Police & security personnel are deployed throughout the auditorium. If public safety personnel cannot be immediately located but other University support personnel are available, ask them to request assistance. Medical personnel are stationed at the venue.

Remember to provide the location (section, row, and seat number) and nature of the emergency.

Persons with mobility impairments who need assistance evacuating will be assisted by event staff and emergency responders.

Lost Child

Parents or a designated responsible adult should advise children to seek a law enforcement officer if they are lost or become separated. Parents or a designated responsible adult may call BUPD at 570-389-2211 or report their lost child to the nearest police officer or security personnel. It is important to provide a description (clothing, age, last known location, etc. Parents should carry a photograph or have an electronic picture of their children. Parents may also want to (1) photograph their children with a cell phone before commencement, (2) leave their contact information in their children's pocket, and (3) have a designated meeting location should they become separated.

Power Failure

If the power fails, instructions will be provided through the public address system. Please remain calm and in your seat until instructions are provided. Consider bringing a small penlight to assist you while the power is out.

Evacuation

Under special circumstances for safety purposes, guests may be required to evacuate the venue. Should this occur, please follow the directions provided through the public address system and leave in a calm, orderly fashion through the nearest exit. (This may not be the entrance you entered.) Please continue to move away from the auditorium or field house so that those behind you have room to exit and are not hindered.

Keep in mind that it will take some time to evacuate. Please do not push the crowd but try to keep moving. This will permit a quicker and more efficient evacuation. Guests who need more time may want to leave the auditorium before a foreseeable event (such as weather) arrives.

Please watch out for and help people with special needs. If an evacuation were ordered, in most cases it is recommended that guests return to their vehicles and leave the area. In some situations, such as severe weather, it may be advisable to leave the auditorium and seek nearby shelter.

Weather

Should a weather event develop, information and warnings will be provided through the public address system.

Explosion

Call 911 or notify the nearest police officer if an explosion occurs. Guests should move away from the area, exit the auditorium, and return to their vehicles.

Fire

To report a fire, the public should call 911 or notify the nearest police officer or security personnel. Alert others and move away from the area. Please help persons with special needs.

Suspicious Behavior/Package

As a preventive measure, guests are asked to call 570-389-2211 or notify the nearest police officer or security personnel of a suspicious package or person. Police personnel will pursue an appropriate response based on the circumstance.
