UNDERGRADUATE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Nick Subich

President and CEO, YTS Wealth Management

Nick Subich is the President and CEO of YTS Wealth Management, which he co-founded in 2019 – growing into a multibillion-dollar wealth management platform serving thousands of families across the northeast.

Subich started his journey in the financial services industry at Lincoln Financial Securities in 2018 before deciding to build a platform to provide every solution to the retirement picture for both clients and financial advisors. Today Nick focuses on growing the platform from a regional Northeast power, into a national firm.

Originally from the Johnstown area, he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration with a specialization in Finance and Economics from Lock Haven University in 2017.

During college, he balanced academics with being a student-athlete and earning his commission as an Army Infantry Officer in the Pennsylvania Army National Guard.

His commitment to community service is most recently reflected in his role as Company Commander of Bravo Company 1/109th IN in Williamsport, and through his active participation in multiple boards and organizations such as the University of Pittsburgh Children's Hospital Trust and the Maple Unified Student Academy.

Subich is also a member of the Lock Haven University Foundation Board of Directors and is actively involved with the university. His recent gift to the Lock Haven University Foundation established the Subich Securities Industry Exam Professional Experience Grant.

He lives in Murrysville with his wife Regina, sons Anthony and Arthur, and their two dogs, Conan and Caroline. There's nothing Nick enjoys more than spending his free time with his family in the outdoors and volunteering his time to impact the lives of kids in need.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The traditional academic regalia worn at commencement exercises is a record of the academic achievement of that individual. Its use originated at English and European universities during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries.

The long gown evolved from the monk's habit. The hood evolved from the cowl that the monks wore over their heads. Today's mortarboard can be traced to the skull caps worn by the churchmen.

The colorful hoods designate the degree of the wearer, the subject in which the degree is held, and the institution that awarded the degree. The color of the velvet band on each hood and robe represent a scholar's field of learning, while the official colors of the school awarding the degree always are shown in the lining of the hood and, sometimes, by the distinctive color of the gown. Bloomsburg University colors are maroon and gold.

As institutions of higher learning were established in America, beginning with Harvard College in 1636, the universities followed the English precedent in which each developed its own version of academic dress. As has been the case with the British universities, there was virtually no conformity from one institution to another and sometimes not even within institutions. College and university administrators, sensing a need for uniformity, convened in 1895 to develop a uniform code of academic regalia. Still in use by most American institutions, the code has been reviewed and revised only twice.

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

Agriculture Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business Drab
Dentistry Lilac
Economics Copper
Education Light Blue
Engineering Orange
Fine Arts, including Architecture Brown
Forestry Russet
Journalism Crimson
Law Purple
Library Science Lemon
Medicine Green
Music Pink
Nursing Apricot
Oratory (Speech) Silver Gray
Pharmacy Olive Green
Philosophy Dark Blue
Physical Education Sage Green
Public Administration,
including Foreign Service Peacock Blue
Public Health Salmon Pink
Science Golden Yellow
Social Work Citron
Theology Scarlet
Veterinary Science Gray

All graduates are considered members of the LHU Alumni Association upon receiving their diploma. While your student experience at LHU has reached its culmination, we hope you'll always remember The Haven as your "Forever Home," and that you'll "Come Home to The Haven" for Homecoming and reunions with friends often. We also encourage you to consider supporting future generations of Bald Eagles who become members of The Haven Family, and choose to make LHU their Forever Home too!

You can stay on top of all of the fun and exciting Haven Happenings throughout the year on the alumni webpage (www.lockhaven.edu/alumni), and be sure to check your email inbox for the Alumni Association's monthly e-newsletter, invitations to regional alumni events and exclusive networking opportunities, and information on career and professional development resources available to alumni through LHU's online career management system, Handshake. UNIVERSITY MACE

Derived from the French masse, or club, the mace was once a fierce battle weapon used during the Middle Ages. Over time it lost its war-like image and became a symbol of peaceful leadership when kings removed the spikes from their maces and encrusted them with jewels and precious metals for ceremonial use. Since then, the mace has been used in ceremonial processions as a symbol of authority.

Lock Haven has two maces fashioned from the wood from old Sullivan Hall, which once stood on the present site of Stevenson Library. Carried by co-marshals, the maces indicate that the activity is an official function of the University.

Kings used the scepter as a symbol of their power and authority, while warriors wielded the mace as a weapon to prove their strength and superiority on the battlefield.

European universities combined these two symbols into an academic mace or ceremonial staff that demonstrated the authority and right of academic institutions to grant degrees to candidates who had earned that privilege. Colleges and universities in the United States gradually adopted this tradition.

LOCK HAVEN ALMA MATER

Where the crystal Susquehanna
 Shimmers in the sun;
Where the mountains cast their shadows
 When the day is done;
Where the hemlock pine and maple
 Murmur in the night;
Beneath the starlight sky till dawning
 Brings the morning light.
There's Lock Haven Alma Mater,
 Cherished as in days long past!
May we be worthy sons and daughters
 Long as life shall last!
Where the ivied tower measures
 Time for work and plan;
Time for sports and songs and laughter
 Through each pleasant day
Where enduring friendships flourish
 Sturdy through the years;
Where learning leads to early wisdom
 Substance of careers.
There's Lock Haven Alma Mater,
 Cherished as in days long past!
May we be worthy sons and daughters
 Long as life shall last!
