4.3 Options After Dismissal

Academic Dismissal will only occur following regular semesters. Once academically dismissed, a student has the following options:

- 4.3.1 Appeal academic dismissal. See 5.4 below for the procedure to appeal.
- 4.3.2 Remain separated from Commonwealth University for at least two consecutive semesters, then reapply to for readmission as a readmitted student.
- 4.3.3 Any student who does not file an appeal to ASRV will be treated as if they did appeal, and the decision was not to be reinstated. No action regarding a student’s record/schedule will be taken until the after ASRB has reached a decision. The Office of Undergraduate Education will provide a list of academically dismissed students to each College Dean and Department Chairs. The coordination of the Academic Standard Review Boards is the responsibility of each college and Office of the Undergraduate Education for the Academic Exploratory (undeclared) student. The coordination will include seeking and securing the faculty within each college, notifying the student of their dismissal, and providing instructions to the student should they wish to be academically reinstated. Each college is responsible for providing the results of their respective ASRB’s to the Dean of Office of Undergraduate Education, who will then notify each constituent outlined in section 5.4.1.

5. Procedures, Standards, and Guidelines for Dismissal

- 5.1 Students earning 0.0 GPA results in an automatic dismissal after one regular semester at
