Students will be grouped together into sections to make sure they get what they need. Pat Long, (Head Men's Soccer Coach, Lock Haven, CU) commented that this policy is a step backwards from a student athlete perspective. This is a huge asset as a recruiting tool to advocate to families that the students will have the opportunity to get in the appropriate classes to achieve success. The coaches also wanted to comment on the part where it says, "In-season sports only"; as many sports cross over and our athletes are in season the entire academic semester regarding the work that they put in and The NCAA rules for what they're allowed to do on a daily basis, both in the fall semester and the spring semester. Brooke Harlowe added that the committee is trying to make it equitable for all students to get what they need, not just student athletes. Bashar Hanna offered to get the unduplicated student athlete report to Brooke for review.
