IV. Officer Reports

- a. President: (Justin Knarr)
 - i. AI Student Guidelines - Second Draft.docx
 - ii. Hello everyone. The document above is regarding Ai student guidelines.
There is a request for student feedback on this document. It outlines how student can use AI at this university. This could become University Policy in a way and this is just a draft of it. This document will likely change.

- iii. The university is facilitating a CPR training on May 4th from 4pm-9pm. It is a 5 hour course to get the certificate. It costs $40 for the certification. This is a good price compared to other courses, some being around $100.

This is great for education majors, camp counselors, or people who work with large groups of others. Keep an eye out for advertisements. Please nominate me or Natalie my April 23rd so we can give them an estimate.

b. Vice President (Natalie Bliss)

- i. Hello everyone, Student Affairs Committee is still looking for a representative. They vote on their times as they go so it is flexible with schedules.
- ii. Academic policy committee meets on Friday's at 1pm, they are also looking for a representative. They review a lot of policies and are influential.
