- ii. I have received several emails about committees that students on the SGA body are on about attendance problems. You are required to go as an SGA member. You need to send an excuse if you cannot attend. The purpose for students being on these committees is to have the student voice be heard. I encourage you to all go to your committees. We will be following up on this matter. In the future this may have consequences within SGA.
- iii. Commencement is May 16th. The college of business, honors college, and masters programs are at 1:00. All other programs are at the later time.

b. Vice President (Natalie Bliss)

- i. Hello everyone. Just to reiterate what Justin said, we understand you are sometimes unaware if there is a meeting, but you are responsible to know when your committee is meeting. You need to follow up with your committee to make sure you are not missing anything. If you haven't heard from your committee, please come see me. Budgets are coming up and things like this can be consequential for your club or organization.

- iv. Budgets are due tomorrow, please try to get them in before 4pm tomorrow. If you get it in late tomorrow, that is also okay. There are some issues on Involve; we do not have the ability to fix these, but it doesn't seem to be a continuous problem. If worse comes to worse, please send me an email, I have downloaded all the files if you need them. You can also send a request to the IT department. It could also be a browser issue. Everything will be fine.
