Fall/Spring Title IV Withdrawal

Any student who is receiving Federal financial aid and is contemplating withdrawal from the university should contact the Financial Aid Office or the Student Billing Office to determine how the Federal refund policy governing financial aid will affect them.

For Fall 2026 II, completion of 60% of the semester would be Monday, September 20, 2026.

For Fall 2026 III, completion of 60% of the semester would be Sunday, November 14, 2026.

For Spring 2027 I, completion of 60% of the semester would be Saturday, March 28, 2027.

For Spring 2027 II, completion of 60% of the semester would be Monday, February 14, 2027.

For Spring 2027 III, completion of 60% of the semester would be Thursday, April 15, 2027.

If a student withdraws from Commonwealth University, a portion of the Title IV financial aid funds the student received may need to be returned to the federal government.

The student should note that PHEAA State Grant may still require a reduction of the Pennsylvania Grant if a student's charges are reduced as a result of a withdrawal from one or more classes or a complete withdrawal from Commonwealth University.

If a student who has borrowed from the Direct Loan program withdraws from Commonwealth University, the student must repay these loans according to the terms of the promissory note.
